- Follow the terms of my notice that is currently in effect

HOW I MAY USE AND DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION:

The following describes the ways I may use and disclose Protected Health Information that identifies you ("PHI"). Except for the purposes described below, I will use and disclose PHI only with your written authorization to obtain and/or release information. You may revoke such authorization at any time by requesting this to me in writing.

For Treatment. I may use and disclose PHI for your treatment and to provide you with treatment-related health care services. For example, I may disclose PHI to other therapists, psychiatrists, doctors, or other health care providers, who are involved in your medical care and need the information to provide you with medical care.

For Payment. I may use and disclose PHI so that I bill and receive payment from you, an insurance company or a third party for the treatment and services you received. For example, I may give your health plan information about you so that they will pay for your treatment.

For Health Care Operations. I may use and disclose PHI for health care operations purposes. These uses and disclosures are necessary to make sure that all of my clients receive quality care, and to operate and manage my office. Example of health care operations include: quality assessment and improvement activities, business-related matters such as audits and administrative services, and case management and care coordination. I also may share information with other entities that have a relationship with you (for example, your health plan) for their health care operation activities.

Appointment Reminders. I may use and disclose PHI to contact you to remind you that you have an appointment with us.

Email Communication. With your expressed and written permission, I may use and disclose PHI to communicate with you via email regarding appointments, general communication, or related to your treatment with me.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. When appropriate, I may share PHI with a person who is involved in your medical care or payment for your care, such as your family or a close friend. I also may notify your family about your location or general condition or disclose such information to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort.

Business Associates. I may have Business Associates such as billing services, bookkeepers, accountants, etc. who may have access to your PHI when they are preparing my routine financial statements, or entering any payments from you, or insurance companies.

SPECIAL SITUATIONS:

As Required by Law. I will disclose PHI when required to do so by international, federal, state or local law. These disclosures do not require prior written consent or authorization by you.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. I may use and disclose PHI when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. Disclosures, however, will be made only to someone who may be able to help prevent the threat.

Military and Veterans. If you are a member of the armed forces, I may release PHI as required by military command authorities. I also may release PHI to the appropriate foreign military authority if you are a member of a foreign military.

Abuse or Neglect. If I have reasonable suspicion to believe that any minor (under 18 years old) has been the victim of abuse or neglect, or exposed to domestic violence, the law requires that I file a report to the appropriate government agency, usually the Department of Children and Families.

If I have reason to believe that abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect of a vulnerable or disabled adult has occurred, the law requires that I file a report with the appropriate government agency.

Duty to Warn. If I have reason to believe that there is an imminent danger to the health or safety of the client or any other individual, I may be legally required to take protective action(s). These actions may include notifying the potential victim, contacting the police, seeking hospitalization for the client, or contacting family members or others who can help provide protection.

Health Oversight Activities. I may disclose PHI to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These oversight activities include, for example, audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.

Data Breach Notification Purposes. I may use or disclose your Protected PHI to provide legally required notices of unauthorized access to or disclosure of your PHI.

Lawsuits and Disputes. If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, I may disclose PHI in response to a court or administrative order. I also may disclose PHI in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process by someone else involved in the dispute, but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested.

I will provide you with an opportunity to agree or object to such a disclosure whenever I practically can do so.

YOUR RIGHTS:

You have the following rights regarding PHI I have about you:

Right to Inspect and Copy. You have a right to inspect and copy PHI that may be used to make decisions about your care or payment for your care. This includes medical and billing records, other than psychotherapy notes. To inspect and copy this PHI, you must make your request, in writing, to John Cutrone, LMHC, MCAP, A-CAS. I have up to 30 days to make your PHI available to you and I may charge you a reasonable fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request. Right to an Electronic Copy of Electronic Medical Records. If your PHI is maintained in an electronic format (known as an electronic medical record or an electronic health record), you have the right to request that an electronic copy of your record be given to you or transmitted to another individual or entity. To request a restriction, you must make your request, in writing, to John Cutrone, LMHC, MCAP, A-CAS.
